USHBC Allocates $1.2 Million to Market Promotion in 2007

A market promotion and publicity budget totaling $1,210,999 was approved by the Council at its Fall planning meeting held in Bar Harbor, Maine on October 7, 2006. Consumer and foodservice public relations will be allocated $550,000 of this total. Food manufacturer publicity activities were approved at $250,000.

Export market promotions will be allocated a total of $216,499 ($166,499 in USDA Market Access Program funding and $50,000 in USHBC funds), and magazine advertising will be funded at $120,000. Strategic planning, to be conducted at the USHBC Spring meeting in March of 2007, co-sponsorship of the 2007 Berry Health Seminar, and a market promotion reserve round out the approved 2007 budget.

Consumer and foodservice efforts in the coming year include continued press kit distributions for summer and winter publication; newspaper syndicate placements; ready-to-print columns; television placements; and Spanish language press releases. In an effort to more actively promote blueberry consumption among children, a Blueberries for Everyone leaflet will be designed and distributed in 2007. The leaflet will include activities, recipes, nutrition information and handling tips and will be directed to families with young children. Additional activities targeted to children include the continued distribution of blueberry menu backer activity sheets, distributed to school foodservice managers throughout the U.S., as well as the development of a blueberry learning and activity folio for classroom use by mid-elementary school age children.

Magazine advertising will continue to be directed to health and nutritional professionals through medical trade publications again in 2007, with additional summertime placements of a consumer ad to appear in Eating Well magazine during peak blueberry season.

Foodservice activities will include promotions with select foodservice chains as well as non-commercial cafeterias, editorial placements in trade publications, continued distribution of the Blue Plate Special electronic newsletter for chain restaurant personnel, a trade advertising campaign and sponsorship of a chef recipe contest for culinary students.

Food manufacturer publicity activities planned for 2007 include attendance at regional Institute of Food Technologists (IFT) Shows in New Jersey, Atlanta, Southern California, Seattle and St. Louis, as well as attendance at the National IFT Show to be held in Chicago in 2007. The USHBC will also take part in the International Baking Industry Expo (Bakery Expo) scheduled for Orlando in October of 2007. Efforts continue to place blueberry technical articles in food manufacturer trade publications along with trade advertising planned for magazines such as Food Technology, Dairy Foods and Milling and Baking. Given growing interest in the USHBC New Blueberry Product Completion, the program will be continued again in 2007 with added emphasis on encouraging the use of the USHBC Made With Real Blueberries seal.
